Supporting adult victim-survivors with complex and multiple needs*

The 'Complex Needs' Idva provides flexible, dedicated and personalised support to people with complex needs in addition to domestic abuse using their specialist skills and expertise to engage, understand and work creatively with clients. The programme delivers a flexible, holistic approach that is personalised for each individual, addressing any risks and improving outcomes around their safety, needs and well-being.

*Additional needs are likely to be substance use, mental health, homelessness, offending, disability, trauma, and/or poverty, alongside domestic abuse (All Party Parliamentary Group (APPG) on Complex Needs and Dual Diagnosis, 2014)

"I was let down for a very long time. Police and social services made me flee, then housing wouldn't help me nor would social services. For over a year me and my children were homeless with no clue and terrified we would be on the streets...[ldva] from Connect and [caseworker] from Early Help really helped me with my housing"
