

Do you have lived experience of domestic abuse and want to improve responses to domestic abuse survivors?

Join Hertfordshire's Domestic Abuse Coproduction Panel

We are looking for four survivors to join the Hertfordshire Domestic Abuse Coproduction Panel where, with dedicated support and connection with other survivors, you can use your voice and the insight you have gained from your experience of domestic abuse to influence, make improvements and save lives.

With your lived experience, you can help transform Hertfordshire's approach to domestic abuse. Together, Herts County Council and SafeLives are committed to hearing and acting on your words to ensure survivors and their families across Hertfordshire get the right support at the right time.

We want to hear from you! We are not yet hearing some voices so invite you to apply to join the panel if you are a survivor of domestic abuse and are:

- from the LGBT+ community, including trans and non-binary people and/or
- from a Black, Asian or another minoritised and/or migratised community (including people with insecure immigration status and people with No Recourse to Public Funds (NRPF)) and/or
- a younger (aged 18-25) or older person (over 65) and/or
- are neurodiverse

If you are a survivor who wants to get involved and aren't from one of the above groups you are very welcome to join the Collective, a loose network of experts by experience who contribute and connect on an as and when basis to issues you're interested in.

“ It's just incredible to think that by using your voice you are changing lives. You can be that beacon of hope.

Dipty, SafeLives Pioneer

Using your power, voice and insight to improve the responses to other victims and survivors of domestic abuse

Support from the SafeLives dedicated Authentic Voice team

Your time is compensated, your expertise rewarded

Trauma informed, prioritising your wellbeing at every stage

Scan to learn more

Please get in touch:
dacoproductionpanelherts@safelives.org.uk

Herts DA Coproduction Panel

Do you have experience of a toxic or unhealthy relationship?

Aged 18-30
and live in Herts?

Join Hertfordshire's Domestic Abuse Coproduction Panel

We are inviting survivors of all ages to join the Hertfordshire Domestic Abuse Coproduction Panel where, with dedicated support and connection with other survivors, you can use your voice to influence, make improvements and save lives.

We know that some voices don't often get heard so we welcome survivors of domestic abuse who are aged 18-30 to join the panel and help transform Hertfordshire's approach to domestic abuse.

Together, Herts County Council and SafeLives are committed to hearing and acting on your words to ensure survivors across Hertfordshire get the right support at the right time.

Learn more

For more info email:
dacoproductionpanelherts@safelives.org.uk

